

Society for Pentecostal Studies

An International Community of Scholars Working Within the Pentecostal and Charismatic Traditions – Established 1970

Announcing the 2020-2021 Young Scholars' Award

Attention SPS Student Members! The SPS Young Scholars' Award provides scholarship funds to the winner of each year's "Best Student Research Paper." The award winner must qualify according to the instructions below. The winner will be noted in the SPS 2020 program, inviting all members to hear the student's presentation of the award-winning paper, and introduced at the annual meeting banquet.

Funds awarded will be based on current funds available in the Young Scholars SPS account. Registrants attending each year's annual meeting have opportunity to give to the Young Scholars' Fund and can also make donations throughout the year.

Student Qualifications:	SPS Leadership Actions:	Timeline:
Be enrolled as a full-time graduate student (Master's level, not Ph.D.)
Submit a proposal corresponding with the subject of one of the SPS Interest Groups to (not more than one) SPS Interest Group leader (see SPS-USA.org).		By June 30, 2020
	IGL will send student notice of proposal acceptance.	By July 31, 2020
Register for SPS 2021 and renew SPS membership.		By November 1, 2020
Submit final paper to IGL in approved format		By January 15, 2021
	Chair of SPS Membership Committee, Peter Althouse, will notify award winner.	By February 1, 2021
Attend annual conference (including banquet), present paper, and submit travel receipts to SPS Secretary/Treasurer.		March 19-21, 2021

All SPS presenters must be SPS members.

You can become a member or renew your membership online at www.sps-usa.org

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact SPS Executive Director, Adrian Hinkle (adrian.hinkle@swcu.edu).

Previous Young Scholars' Award Winners

2014

Brandon Hubbard-Heitz, Wake Forest University, "The Devil Can Go and Commit Suicide": Explorations and Implications of the Early Pentecostals' Hermeneutic of Space"

Anthony Roberts, Southeastern University, "A Cautious Hermeneutical Relationship: The Influence of Ludwig Feuerbach's Philosophical Framework within James H. Cone's God of the Oppressed"

2015

William Kyle Clukey, Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary, "A Kenotic Ethic of Peacebuilding and Reconciliation"

2016

Alex R. Mayfield, Boston College, "Seal of the Spirit: The Sacrament of Confirmation and Pentecostal Spirit Baptism."

2017

Elizabeth Krueger, Lee University, "Refusing to Perpetuate Otherness: Hospitality as the Ecclesial Response and Prevention of Sex Trafficking."

2018

Dara Coleby Delgado, University of Dayton, "The Practicality of Holiness: A Historical Examination of Class, Race, and Gender within Black Holiness Pentecostalism, Bishop Ida Bell Robinson, and the Mount Sinai Holy Church of America."

2019

Skylar D. McManus, Regent University, "Parsing Pentecostal Oneness Christology."

2020

Daniel Topf, Fuller Theological Seminary, "Addressing the Economic Dimension of Global Violence Against Women: Threats and Opportunities in the Age of the Fourth Industrial Revolution."