Statement of Purpose of the Society of Pentecostal Scholars

"To offer Pentecostal Scholarship in all academic disciplines as a spiritual service to the Kingdom of God."

Objectives:

1. To stimulate, encourage, recognize, and publicize the work of Pentecostal scholars.
2. To study the implications of Pentecostal theology in relation to other academic disciplines, seeking a Pentecostal world-and-life view.
3. To serve Pentecostal youth by providing a better understanding of their heritage and helping them to identify with the Pentecostal movement.
4. To serve Pentecostal graduate students in non-Pentecostal schools by relating them to on-going scholarship within the Pentecostal movement.
5. To serve Pentecostal ministers by promoting opportunities for continuing education.
6. To serve Pentecostal leaders by providing resource materials.
7. To serve the church world by providing an authoritative interpretation of the Pentecostal movement.
